AT DANVILLE.

Rev. E. A. Bishop, D. D., principal of Montpelier Seminary, will give an address to young people Thursday evening in the Methodist church. All Leslie Ranney is at home from New ndon, N. H. Mr. and Mrs. John Spurge of Newark, J., are visiting at Mrs. Arthur Ben-home. H. Riley of Trenton, N. J., spent his ction with Arthur Bennett.

The fall term of Phillips Academy comgenera next Wednesday, with Harvey ad Miss Ella Page in the primary room. Mrs. J. C. Cummings of Littleton has been visiting at E. E. Badger's.

Harry Webb of Epping, N. H., has een visiting friends here.

Mrs. Carl D. Hopkins, who has been siting at Hardwick, has returned to sister's, Mrs. S. M. Ingalls.

Albert Ingalls is quite seriously ill. Miss Mary Sargent is at home from Burlington. Frank Harris of Lowell, Mass., is siting friends here.

William Adams, who has been spendthe summer here, has returned to the Congregational church fair was Nathaniel Cobb, who has been studyabroad for the past two years, is ting his father, George Cobb. Rowe has returned to Norwich iversity for the sophomore year. Mr. and Mis. M. V. B. Dow have reproced from Old Orchard Beach. Col. and Mrs. N. A. Dole went Tues

ay to Ratland with Gov. Bell and staff to visit the state institutions. Misses Bessie and Minnie Bacon of trooklyn, N. Y., Hon, Charles H. Russell New York, and Mrs. Arthur W. llins of Boston are stopping at

Mrs. H. E. Barber and children are is ting at S. M. Hubbull's at North

Mrs. Robert McCullough, who has in ill, is recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Davis have gone

Boston and will sail soon for their me in South America. W. A. Tucker and family and Miss ary of Winchester, Mass., Harry Moore and Mrs. Hoover of Boston, are stopping at Miss W. A. Preston's. Winchester Smith of Hyde Park, Mass.,

s stopping at F. J. Preston's. Charles H. Dole, Harvey H. Peck, Carrol M. Crane, Harry E. Crane, Marm R. McDonald, Merton B. Badger, Susie L. Greenbanks, Ray Greenbanks, Arthur Cunningham and Ralph A. Badger commenced Tuesday to attend Peacham

Bottom prices on all kinds of dry oods. Big stock of fall goods coming.

t Frasier's, West Danville. There was a very pleasant gathering at the home of Clarence A. Hatch, when a party of 18 friends surprised Mrs. Hatch on her birthday. The tables were countifully spread upon the lawn. The day was beautiful, music and games were indulged in, and the mirth and heer of the company proved that all had pleasant time. Lee and Elmer Hatch Chicago were present.

Miss Lillian Armstrong of Boston is risiting her cousin, Mrs. A. E. Hatch. Mrs. Loot of Lyndonville is visiting her sister, Mrs. Edwin Webster.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox of Walden visited at Wallace Nunn's, Sunday.

Elmer Hatch, who has been visiting his uncle, C. A. Hatch, has returned to his home in Chicago. Under the present system Danville received from the State in 1905 $625 63 for highways, and $370.06 for schools, more than it paid to the State, and the State paid $975.00 to care for the town's insane patients. Clement would abolish this system. This town now sends a representative to Montpelier. Clement calls this a "rotten borough system," and would have Danville lose its identity in the legislature and become part of a "legislative

In 1900 Senator Clement prevented an increased tax on corporations, and fathered the last State tax ever levied in Vermont. This saved Mr. Clement's railroad $28,199.34 in 1901. It cost Danville $1167.08. Vote for your town's interest next Tuesday .- Adv.

HARVEY.

Miss Grace Bartlett is visiting relatives in Corinth, and expects to return home the first of September.

Harold Hatch was at S. A. Hatch's over Sunday. Mrs. Carrie Grover and son Alfred of Franklin, Mass., are spending their summer vacation at L. E. Grover's. James McGill has nearly completed quite extensive stone work for J. C. Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Hale recently visited friends in Cabot.

A. H. Bartlett has purchased a new grain reaper and is doing quite an extensive business cutting grain.

P. T. McGill was in St. Johnsbury last

EAST CONCORD.

Remember the republican rally Saturday evening in the Methodist church. The speakers will be Robert W. Simonds of St. Johnsbury, J. H. Walbridge of Concord, and K. T. Brown of Lunenburg, There will be music and the public is invited.

GASKILL.

Rev. Edward T. Fairbanks will conduct service at the Gaskill school house, Sunday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.

Humors

Are impure matters which the skin, liver, kidneys and other organs cannot take care of without help.

Pimples, boils, eczema and other eruptions, loss of appetite, that tired feeling, bilious turns, fits of indigestion, dull headaches and many other troubles are due to them. They are removed by Hood's Sarsaparilla In usual liquid form or in chocolated tabletsknown as Sarsatabs. 100 doses $1. Tuesday.-Adv.

SOUTH PEACHAM.

Sandford Hooker went to his home in Bradford last week to attend the fair. Miss Frances Scott has whooping

The schools at South Peacham and Farland, respectively, as teachers. During the severe thunder storm of Thursday afternoon lightning struck a arge tree in Miss Nettie Crane's yard. The Molly Falls telephone Company recently installed a telephone for R. C.

Albert Richardson was quite ill last week, but is better. Mrs. M. H. Eames returned to her home in Cambridge, Saturday. WALDEN.

Rev. Mr. Martin and wife are at Lyndonville attending campmeeting. Remember the republican rally at the schoolhouse Friday evening.

Miss Stella Wilson, who has been spending several weeks at West Enosburg, returned home last week.

Mrs. Emma Jennison has been visiting friends at South Newbury. Mr, and Mrs. D. S. Cox have been helsen. Onite a number of our townsprople went to Hardwick Wednesday evening successful. Over $125 was cleared. to hear Percival W. Clement speak. N. J. Kingsbury's tamily and Mrs.

Robertson spent Sunday with friends in Peacham. Mrs. Cynthia Haskins visited her cousin, Mrs. A. A. Scott, last week. Bottom prices on all kinds of dry goods. Big stock of fall goods coming.

At Frasier's, West Danville. Under the present system Walden received from the State in 1905 $374.92 for highways, and $158.55 for schools, insane patients. Clement would abolish this system. This town now sends a representative have Walden lose its identity in the legislature and become part of a "legislative district." In 1900 Senator Clement prevented an increased tax on corporations, and athered the last State tax ever levied in Vermont. This saved Mr. Clement's his followers under the banner of Clem-railroad $28,199.34 in 1901. It cost ent and Pape. Walden $373.89. Vote for your town's interest next Tuesday .- Adv. LYNDON.

Mrs. Caro Hubbard has been very ill and was removed last week Tuesday to the hospital at Hanover, where an operation was performed and she seems to be constantly improving. W. J. Delaney has obtained employment with the Armour Packing Co., at Woodsville, and the family went last Mrs Lewis Dana and Master Charles are at Peacham, called there last week by illness in the family. Mrs. Elon Bradley has been enjoying a visit from her sister, Mrs. Leach, of Lutie Hovey has hired a farm on Pudding hill and moves his family this week. Miss Clara Smith of Concord, N. H., is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs.

Mrs. Hunt, who has been visiting at Lewis Dana's, returned home Monday. Miss Beatrice McGoff has returned rom a week's visit at Irasburg. Mrs. Sillers has returned from month's visit at Island Pond. Mr. Sharon, who has for several years driven the meat cart for George La-Point, has bought the building formerly used as a market and is fitting it up. He expects to open a meat market in a

Mrs. Fred Spencer has returned from a two weeks visit with her sister at Charleston.

There will be two dances this week at Mechanics' hall, one Wednesday night with Mrs. Brock's orchestra, and Friday evening the Woodmen have one called old and young folks dance.

Miss Lottie Bailey is at Henry Bailey's. Rev. Mr. Shaw and family, Joseph Chayer and family, Mrs. Staples and Mrs. Wells Quimby, are camping at the camp ground during the meetings. Rev. Mr. Gray and Prof. Fisher will not be able to hold meetings here as soon as was supposed, but when arrangements are completed due notice will be given. Under the present system Lyndon received from the State in 1905 $898.73 for schools, more than it paid to the State, and the State paid $975 to care for the town's insane patients. Clement would abolish this system. In 1900 Senator Clement prevented an increased tax on corporations, and fathered the last State tax ever levied in Vermont. This saved Mr. Clement's railroad $28,199.34 in 1901. It cost Lyndon $2055.24. Vote for your town's interest next

Tuesday .- Adv.

EAST BARNET. Mrs. Addie Moulton of Worcester, Mass., is visiting her sister, Mrs. L. E.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hoyt, Miss Lizzie Galbraith and Masters Herman Hoyt and Raymond Moore, took a carriage ride through the mountains last week.

Florence Dickinson attended the Scott, Lang, and Harriman reunion at Irving Smith's at Littleton, Thursday.

Mrs. L. E. Bailey, national organizer and lecturer for the W. C. T. U. spoke in the chapel Sunday afternoon.

WEST BURKE.

Under the present system Burke received from the state in 1905 $250.98 for highways, more than it paid to the State, and the State paid $195.00 to care for the town's insane patients. Clement would abolish this system.

This town now sends a representative to Montpelier. Clement calls this a "rotten borough sys em," and would have Burke lose its identity in the legislature and become part of a "legislative

In 1900 Senator Clement prevented an increased tax on corporations, and lathered the last state tax ever levied in Vermont. This saved Mr. Clement's railroad $28,199.34 in 1901. It cost Burke $915 42.

Vote for your town's interest next

AT THE 'VILLE.

The Lyndonville Band, and other members of the Minneapolis party, returned last week at various times, all reporting a fine time, and bearing the weight o Green Bay began Monday with Miss new laurels. Both in music and appear-Margaret Guthrie and Mrs. John Mc. ancethey ranked high among the 58 bands ance they ranked high among the 58 bands and crum corps present, and received many well deserved and sincere compli ments. S. J. Wilson and his son, Homer, Dr. Cheney and son Paul, Harry Wakefield and bis son Bruce, all stopped several days in Chicago on their way home. Mr. and Mrs. George Shorey visited at various places in the West and will return home the last of this week. Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Collison are also visiting in Minnesota. and will not return for a month. Frank Burns remained in Chicago for a tew days and Edwin Carpenter went to Dakota to visit his sister.

Fred Campbell of Springfield, Mass, was in town last week with the body of his infant son, Robert Bailey, which was brought here for burial. This was the survivor of the pair of twins born recently to Mr. and Mrs. Campbell. Mrs. Ira Watson and sister, Miss Elfie Campbell, and their friend, Mrs. Hall, are at their Willoughby Lake cottage for a few weeks. Elwyn Campbell and his old est son, Donald, returned Saturday to spending some time with friends in Fair Haven, Mass., where his school opens Sept. 5. Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Edgerton and son of McIndoe Falls have been spending a Olaf are spending a few weeks in Coatiew days at his father's, Levi Edgerton. The musical comedy, "The Harvard Girl," given in Music Hall Thursday evening, was well attended and highly spoken of by the audience. The music, comedy and dancing was all bright, lively Mr. and Mrs. Charles Emerson and daughter Ruth, are spending a fortnight with his father's people, H. P. Emerson. An enthusiastic Republican rally was held last Wednesday evening, at which more than it paid to the State, and the State paid $590.10 to care for the town's Fitts and Senator Dillingham were the speakers. A. J. Maxham sang, and the Lyndonville Band played several selections. Standing room was in demand to Montpelier. Clement calls this a and the speakers interested and enterrotten borough system," and would tained a large audience for over three hours with an array of facts presented for the consideration of the voters. The opposite side of these questions will be heard Saturday evening of this week, Sept. 1, when Mr. Pape the Fusion candidate for licutenant-governor will rally

> Eugene Rowland of Rome, N. Y., was in town last week looking up his cousins, E. M. and G. M. Campbeil, and visiting the old Campbell homestead at Sutton from which his family migrated nearly 75 years ago.

Bert Hinds was seriously ill several days last week and an attack of fever was feared, but he is now improving. Miss Bessie Aldrich spent Sunday with friends in town.

Miss Alice Hutchinson is working for Mrs. F. J. Willey during the absence of her sister. Miss Bessie Hutchinson is preparing to return to Georgia with her sister, Mrs. Spain, about the 20th of September, where she will spend the win-

Miss Bernice King of Barton Landing is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Will L. Guild. With Mr. and Mrs. Guild, she spent Sunday in St. Johnsbury at the home of an-

The two candidates for town representative now before the public are O. G. Chase, democratic, and George Fisher, republican. Both are men of character, well known and popular, and it is ex-pected there will be a close and lively

A picnic of the Log Rolling Association of the Modern Woodmen was held at Joe's Pond last Thursday with a good attendance. G. M. Campbell's family returned Tuesday from Ocean Park, Me., where they have been for a few weeks. Mrs. Jennie Conley of Boston is stopping at L. B. Harris'.

Mrs. Marilla Jones of Chelsca, Mass., has been visiting her brother, A. L. Finney. Mrs. Finney has been spending a week with Mrs. Horace Lacklin, at Portsmouth, N. H. Mrs. A. A. Cheney and sons, Maurice and Donald, have been visiting her sister in Portsmouth, N. H., for a week.

A delightful social function connected with the republican rally here Wednesday was the lunch given the speakers of the evening, the members of the town committee and four invited guests from St. Johnsbury, at the palatial residence of Mr. Vail. Dainty menus had the state seal in water colors at the top, while in the center of the dining room table was a clever representation of the coat of arms, with sheaves of oats and a miniature cow underneath the pine tree. The time was too short to permit a long visit, but the guests were enthusiastic over the hospitality of the owner of Speedwell Farms, and the reception was a special delight to the speakers who have been kept so busy in this strenuous campaigr. The Village Improvement society are planning for a huge bazaar to be held sometime this fall. The graded school reopens Tuesday ning at 10 o'clock and it for the fall term. The teachers are the afternoon beginning at 1.15. same as last year, with two exceptions: The new principal is Garfield Arthur Jamieson, and Miss Maud Smith takes the sixth and seventh grades in place of Miss Harrington. Miss Smith's school is taken by Miss Agnes McGovern.

At a special meeting of the Shakespeare club, Saturday afternoon, it was voted to accept the articles of union proposed and unite with the Woman's and Mothers' clubs in forming the Lyndon Civic Federation. Mrs. E. J. Blodgett was elected president of this organization. Considerable minor business was disposed of, and the report of the program committee on the coming year's work was listened to and accepted. club will take up the study of Shakespeare, spending most of the time in reading his plays. Dowden's "Shake-speare Primer" will be used as a textbook, and the Rolle edition as authority. The club librarian, Mrs. E. J. Blodgett, requests that all members wishing to order books will notify her as soon as

While the lights are off, the stores will close at 7 o'clock every evening.

Quite a party of young people from here occupied C. B. Dodge's cottage at Lake Morey last week. Among them were Mrs. Harry Wakefield and children, Sherman and Helen, Mrs. David Silsby, Josephine Watson, Grace Finney, and Russell Griswold.

ciation of New England and the Maritime Provinces. His studio will be closed for about two weeks. Miss Ethel Gronberg and her brother

HAS NO SUBSTITUTE

Mrs. Nantie Rogan has been visiting Mrs. B. R. Lyster, at Whitefield for a

Miss Annie Fowler is spending a two week's vacation at home, and her brother Clarence is also here from New Camp meeting is now in session for the second week, the program being carried out as published. The seats have been re-arranged, the grounds and buildings fixed up, and everything looks very neat and attractive. There is a large attend ance, and much interest is shown. The meetings will continue through this week, and close Sunday. The speakers last Sunday were Rev. W. R. Davenport of Barton Landing in the morning, Rev. J. M. Frost of St. Johnsbury in the afternoon, and Rev. S. G. Lewis of Hardwick in the evening. Rev. Ora S. Gray of Amherst, Mass., is present this week, and will preach every evening. He is ac-companied by Mr. Fisher, who is a fine singer and leader of the music. Other excellent speakers will be here during the week.

Mrs. Ecton Shorey and son are visitng at Newport for a few days. Mrs. J. T. Gleason has gone to Laneaster for a short visit. Rev. E. G. French has returned from nis vacation and conducted services as usual at the Congregational church Sunday. There will be the usual preaching services and Sunday school at the Universalist church next Sunday.

PASSUMPSIC. Mrs. Emma F. Wells went to Hyde Park, Monday morning, where she will care for Mrs. Fred Fuller, Her daughter, Carrie returned home Sunday from East Barnet, where she has been caring for Doris Corriveau, who has been very sick with diphtheria. Rev. A. S. Gilbert preached Sunday morning and brought before his hearers very forcibly the work of the State Convention, also its need of funds to carry on the very important work of carrying to isolated parts of our ow state and helping weak churches. All wishing to contribute towards this work wiil please see that their contributions are handed in within the next two

The annual Sunday school picnic was held Thursday in Henry Wright's grove. About 75 were present. Much of the enoyment of the day was due to theefforts of Mr. Wright and Joseph Wark. A vote of thanks was extended to these men by the Sunday school. Among those taking advantage of this outing was Prof. Landry of Winnipeg, who sang several selections, thus giving pleasure to all who heard him. The entertainment in the church last week Tuesday evening, under the aus-pices of the Y. P. S. C. E., was greatly enjoyed. Miss Helen Sylvester of Woburn, Mass., gave six readings. Her wonderful talent and her youth made a great impression upon all who heard her. The musical part of the program consisted of piano solos by Helen Keith and Clarence Vitty, vocal solo by Earl Dow, and a violin solo by Irma King. Mrs. Euphemia Park and daughter May who have been visiting Mrs. Park's sister, Mrs. L. H. Vitty, and her brother J. S. Somers, and calling on other friends in town, returned to their home in Boston Sunday afternoon Mrs. E. C. Dodge of East St. Johnbury visited Mrs. Belle Thayer last week, and Mrs. Stevens Woods visited at J. D. Gould's.

Miss Hamilton and a friend from Massachusetts were at Mrs. Thayer's last week Tuesday. There will be a missionary conference in the church next Tuesday begin-ning at 10 o'clock and in the conference will take the place of the regular Missionary meeting. It is expected that Mrs. Silver, Miss Brigham, Miss Read and others will be present to speak. It is hoped that all the ladies of the church and congregation will make a special effort to be present at both sessions.

Dr. E. H. Gilbert, who has spent several weeks with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. A. S. Gilbert, returned Tuesday to Tuesday.—Adv. his home in Needbam, Mass. Joseph Symes of Manchester, N. H.

has been spending some time with his brother, Alfred Symes. Alfred Sparrow started Monday for the Great North West, where he expects | State. to stake out a claim and remain for the present.

VICTORY.

Under the present system Victory received from the State in 1905 $159.51 for highways, and $139.01 for schools. more than it paid to the State, and the State paid $195.00 to care for the town's insane patients. Clement would abolish this system. This town now sends a representative have Victory lose its identity in the legislature and become part of a "legislative In 1900 Senator Clement prevented an to Montpelier. Clement calls this a "rotten borough system," and would Vermont. This saved Mr. Clement's railroad $28,199.34 in 1901. It cost Victory $167 66.

Tuesday .- Adv.

Vote for your town's interest next

In 1900 Senator P. W. Clement, now candidate for Governor, prevented an increased tax on corporations and fathered the last State tax ever levied in Ver-mont. This saved Mr. Clement's rail road $28,199.34 in 1901. It cost Bradford $1,358 33 .- Adv.

CABOT. Bottom prices on all kinds of dry goods. Big stock of fall goods coming.

At Frasier's West Danville. Under the present system Cabot received from the State in 1905 $343 53 for highways, and $334 45 for schools, more than it paid to the State, and the State paid $1,365.00 to care for the town's insane patients. Clement would abolish this system.

This town now sends a representative to Montpelier. Clement calls this a 'rotten borough system," and would have Cabot lose its identity in the legislature and become part of a "legislative district." In 1900 Senator Clement prevented an increased tax on corporations, and fathered the last State tax ever levied in Vermont. This saved Mr. Clement's railroad $28,199.34 in 1901. It cost Cabot $777.89. If it cost this to have Clement in the Senate what would it cost if he was Governor? Vote for your town's interest next

Tuesday .- Adv.

NORTH DANVILLE. Mr. and Mrs. Ransom Slack and three children of Randolph Center were guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Langmaid a couple of days the first of the week.

Mrs. J. G. Green and Appleton Perry are both quite ill and have been for a week past.

Mrs. G. A. Massey is visiting relatives n Newport for a week. Mrs. B. C. McFarland of St. Johnsbury s visiting relatives here.

Quite a company from here attended campmeeting at Lyndonville, Sunday. The Free Baptist Sunday school is enjoying a picnic at Bean's Pond, Lyndon,

HARDWICK.

Under the present system Hardwick received from the State in 1905 $107.66 for highways, and $818.23 for schools, more than it paid to the State, and the State paid $780.00 to care for the town's insane patients. Clement would abolish this system. In 1900 Senator Clement prevented an increased tax on corporations, and fathered the last State tax ever levied in Vermont. This saved Mr. Clement's railroad $28,191.34 in 1901. It cost Hardwick $1378 15. Vote for your town's interest next

Tuesday .- Adv.

Under the present system Stannard received from the State in 1905 $106.73 for highways, and $14.30 for schools, more than it paid to the State, and the State paid $195.00 to care for the town's insane patients. Clement would abolish this system.

This town now sends a representative to Montpelier. Clement calls this a 'rotten borough system," and would have Stannard lose its identity in the legislature and become part of a "legislative district." In 1900 Senator Clement prevented an increased tax on corporations, and fathered the last State tax ever levied in Vermont. This saved Mr. Clement's railroad $28,199.34 in 1901. It cost Stannard $86.99. Vote for your town's interest next

Tuesday. -Adv.

Under the present system Waterford received from the State in 1905 $266.25 for highways, and $169.28 for schools, more than it paid to the State. Clement would abolish this system. This town now sends a representative to Montpelier. Clement calls this a "rotten borough system," and would have Waterford lose its identity in the legislature and become part of a "legislative district."

In 1900 Senator Clement prevented an increased tax on corporations, and lathered the last State tax ever levied in Vermont. This saved Mr. Clement's railroad $28,199 34 in 1901. It cost Waterford $579.48. Vote for your town's interest next

Tuesday .- Adv.

Under the present system Sheffield rcceived from the State in 1905 $224.63 tor highways, and $247.63 for schools more than it paid to the State, and the State paid $195.00 to care for the town's insane patients. Clement would abolish

this system. This town now sends a representative to Montpelier. Clement calls this a "rotten borough system," and would have Sheffield lose its identity in the legislature and become part of a "legis" The dates this year are lative district.' In 1900 Senator Clement prevented an increased tax on corporations, and fathered the last State tax ever levied in Vermont. This saved Mr. Clement's railroad $28,199 34 in 1901. It cost Sheffield $344.93. Vote for your town's interest next

Under the present system Ryegate received from the State in 1905 $214.46 for highways more than it paid to the

This town now sends a representative to Montpelier. Clement calls this a "rotten borough system," and would have Ryegate lose its identity in the legislature and become part of a "legislative district.' In 1900 Senator Clement prevented an

Vermont. This saved Mr. Clement's railroad $28,199.34 in 1901. It cest Ryegate $946 61. Vote for your town's interest next Tuesday.-Adv.

ncreased tax on corporations, and athered the last State tax ever levied in BARNET.

The young people at Barnet Center H. W. Hosford is in Boston attending increased tax on corporation, and the meeting of the Photographer's Asso- fathered the last State tax ever levied in McLaren, Aug. 31. Everybody invited.

WHEELOCK.

Under the present system Wheelock received from the State in 1905 $419 14 | lative district." or highways, and $328.40 for schools, nore than it paid to the State, and the State paid $195.00 to care for the town's insane patients. Clement would abolish this system. This town now sends a representative to Montpelier. Clement calls this a Vo'e for you "rotten borough system," and would Tuesday,-Adv.

bave Wheelock lose its identity in the legislature and become part of a "legis-

In 1900 Senator Clement prevented an in reased lax on corporations, and fathered the last State to x ever levied in Vermont. This saved Mr. Clement's railroad $28,199 34 in 1901. It cost Wheelock S75 67.

Vo'e for your town's interest next

LITTLE HARRY.

St. Johnsbury Trotter with a Record.

Little Harry, the handsome trotter | with a silver mane and tail, off hind foot wned by the late George E. Goodall died of peritonitis and old age at the h me of his present owner on Aug. 18. Dr. John Ward and his owner stood by him in his box stall when he kind and able to trot in 250 His died and when the end was so near that fastest time was made late: -2 231/2 He he could not give his customary han 'shake, he gave an affectionate whinney. Just at sunset Miss Goodall saw her slower than at the present time. favorite lowered to his last resting

Banner, dam by Cassius M. Clay Jr., reduced this record to 2 271/2. His half sister, Lady Bareloot, has a record of No. 54. His mother was an untraced | 2,261/2 Little Harry was gentle and Morgan mare. His color was chestnut, kind and a great favorite of his owners.

and ankle whi e, and a white star in his forehead. He stood 151/4 hands high. He was bought in March, 1886, by the late George E Goodall of William Mears, a Barre farmer, Mr. Mears giving his guarantee that the horse was sound, trotted at the Caledonia county fair in September, 1889, in 2 2914, when all track conditions made trotting much think Little Harry trotted as well in his time as those today with a record at least ten seconds better. He made the Little Harry was a registered Morgan same record at Montreal, June 25, No. 24, and foaled in 1878 by Young 1889, and at Sherbrooke a little later

Product of the Wheat-field

is the nutritious

Cracker Пanover

delicately browned, thoroughly baked, light and appetizing.

On tables of New England families for almost a century. ASK YOUR GROCER.

Made by SMITH & SON, White River Junction, Vt , and sold in clean, blue boxes of 100 Crackers each.

VERMONT'S

Greatest Fair, Finest Grounds.

The Orleans County Fair

held annually at the famous Roaring Brook Park. Barton, has come to be known as Vermont's Greatest Fair on Vermont's Finest Grounds

September 11, 12, 13 and 14.

You will find here the old-fashioned cattle exhibit and horse show and in addition a daily balloon ascension, daily drill of Troop G, 15th U. S. cavalry, daily ball game, daily exhibit of high priced vaudeville performers, big daily races, etc. Here is a part of the program. WEDNESDAY, Ball game, 10 a. m., Barton vs. Derby Line, Drill Cavalry. Address by Hon. J. C. Burke, 1 p. m. Race 2.21 class, purse $250. Series of acrobatic acts. Balloon

THURSDAY, Ball game, 10 a. m., Barton vs. Lyndonville, Cavalry drill. Races, 2,25, 2,22, big purses. Exhibition Belgian Trained Goats. Acrobatic feats. Balloon ascension. FRIDAY, Ball game, 10 a. m., Barton vs. Hardwick. Cavalry drill. Performance big Jap troupe. Acrobatic feats. Races, 2.35, 2.30, 2.13, 2.19, big purses. Batloon ascension.

A courteous and hospitable reception is guaranteed everyone and every provision is made for your care and comfort.

Admission 25 Cents.

Reserved seats in charge of H. J. Stannard. Barton. Write in advance.

C. E. HAMBLET, Secretary.